Designer Tip

Natural stone is an elegant and versatile material. Rich with organic beauty, it's also inherently durable.

PRIME TIME ENTERTAINMENT

An essential design principle, contrast is about more than just color. Create visual interest in a space by combining a variety of textures, materials and finishes. Pair natural stone and wood with sleek metals, glass and acrylic to create a sophisticated space.

JUST AS THE SUN RADIATES A GLOW,
WARM METALLIC FINISHES EMPHASIZE THE RICH DEPTH OF NATURAL WOOD GRAINS.

Sometimes all it takes to transform a room from ordinary to extraordinary is the perfect cabinet. First, consider function—do you need open storage, hidden storage or a surface for display? Then, evaluate your area—what size and shape fits best? Now, think about the colors and materials that will balance your existing furnishings or provide dramatic contrast.

I'm A Fan

Paldao wood veneers are expertly crafted into fan patterns in this must-have cabinet. Highlights of Ivory silkscreen create an overall diamond pattern while a polished marble top completes the look.

LIVABLE LUXURY IS AS MUCH A FEELING AS IT IS A STYLE.

Light. Airy. Serene. A truly tranquil room allows the eye to rest. To design a space that feels effortlessly elegant, start with a soothing color palette of soft neutrals. Choose furnishings with rounded silhouettes, reflective finishes, glass, and open metalwork to create an ethereal environment.

CHITTER CHATTER ARM CHAIR

Designing for couples is a challenge easily solved with layers. If you prefer feminine colors such as blush and rose—but your partner doesn't—use them as accents. Begin with a neutral palette for the walls, flooring and furniture. Then, incorporate your favorite shade with decorative pillows, artwork and accessories.

Designer Tip
For maximum impact, decorate with odd numbers. Three is the perfect number of accents to embellish a dresser or cabinet top.

To give a light, airy feel to a space, choose furnishings that are open at the bottom. Light bounces around exposed areas and creates a feeling of openness. Also look for shimmering and reflective finishes—they add visual interest and drama without detracting from the serenity of the aesthetic.

Designer Tip

Nothing adds drama like metallic finishes. The glint of gold, the shimmer of silver and the glamour of glass add stunning sophistication to any space.

MAKE DINING SPECIAL

In today's fast-paced world, dining-in has new significance. Taking the time to break bread and gather together is essential for staying connected and creating memories. Set cellphones and electronics aside and emulate past generations by embracing a slow meal. Round dining tables such as Do A 360 and plush chairs such as Sweet Seat are ideal for encouraging these lingering meals and meaningful conversations.

Designer Tip

The magic of a monochromatic palette is it allows the eye to travel the room without interruption. Add texture, tone-on-tone patterns and hints of metallics to enhance the luxe look without detracting from its appeal.

When you find a piece that's as efficient as it is elegant—it's destined to become a favorite. Not only does Toast Of The Town add refinement and grace to a space, it also offers versatile functionality. Interior drawers and shelves provide generous space for storing linens, china and barware. And yet, with its gorgeous Platinum Blonde finish over mottled Anegre veneers, shaped metal feet, and jewelry-like door hardware, it's the exquisite beauty of this showpiece you'll enjoy most.
