casually CHIC

Anchoring this look: a moody Charred Bark finish adds depth and rich contrast to subdued neutral hues—an earthy Mountain Smoke finish with gray undertones and a pearlescent Moonstone finish with a splash of pixie dust for added luster. Crème Travertine showcases the exquisite veining and coloration found in natural stone, elevated by custom hardware and acrylic posts capped in Whisper Of Gold.

Classic styles pay homage to our core aesthetic, offering familiarity and comfort with touches of luxury.

refined RUSTIC

Rooted in the organic, this design collective layers natural elements with an alluring mix of materials and finishes. Warm wood veneers—Japanese Sen, Koto, and Silver Curupixa—add character and a rustic appeal, elevated by Travertine stone, antiqued mirror, smooth velvets and woven geometric fabrics with lustrous accent threads.

UNIQUE IN NATURE

New this season: Snowcap Organic, our exclusive bleached white, digitally printed spalted maple, captures beauty made randomly by nature. Shadowy spalting and marble-like veining add depth and dimension atop a light ground reminiscent of snow. Glamorous complements: custom hardware that emulates its figured grain (at right) and dimpled drawer pulls (on left) in Majestic Gold. Also offered in Naturally Organic (below), our digitally printed spalted maple with warmer wood tones.

Mid-century lines warmly intersect with patterns found in nature to make an extraordinary statement.

Our Highs and Lows sideboard is designed with adjustable metal legs that allow you to raise the height for a more traditional console, or lower it to accommodate media.

modern METROPOLITAN

Evoking a sense of metropolitan modernity, visually defined lines intersect with fluid shapes and free-flowing patterns, punctuated by the natural beauty of stone, brushed tungsten and gold metals. A celebration of finery and form: layers of tonal velvets, tactile fabrics, and a buttery soft nubuck leather add luxe notes, elevating function and redefining the way we live, create, and work.

A sleek introduction to modern living interiors, our Opening Act chair melds form and function for a style that's as comfortable as it is fashionable. Curved lines create tension and an elegant metal frame for a perfectly pitched back and seat, dressed in a buttery soft, nubuck leather.

Edgy and inventive, this soul-stirring collective merges iconic design with lavish materials and artistic expression.

form is EVERYTHING

A poetic ode to form and materiality takes inspiration from classic designs and architectural beauty. An unexpected use of textures and materials reimagines functionality, from tonal tiers of velvet, to buttery soft nubuck leather and the warm sheen of tungsten metal. Evocative and emotive, these sculptural silhouettes are the epitome of statement-making.

In architectural design, details are a small piece of the whole, yet they have the power to characterize and define. Our Wing Tip chair beckons in a pewter velvet with channeled seams along the back and a shapely wood frame, accentuated by padded armrests and welt in dove gray leather. Pierced metal ferrules add an element of distinction.

a formal AFFAIR

Fashion meets fantasy for an evening of enchantment with this spellbinding design collective, creating unforgettable moments in a mix of pearlescent finishes, metallics, and shimmering fabrics. A silver-dyed Madrona burl with cloud-like swirls introduces a light finish, warmly complemented by striped platinum accents and soft gold tones. Beckoning a second glance: jewelry-like hardware, metal buckles and ferrules, and a trellis headboard panel with starry details inspired by delicate beading on the bodice of a ball gown.
